Letter of Motivation

Write a letter of motivation in English of maximum one page in length.

If applying for the German-taught programme at St.Gallen, you must also include the letter of application in German of maximum one page in length.

The letter should clearly explain your motivation for participating in your current RSM master programme and for your selected DM² partner university.

- How and why do the master programmes of the two DM² universities (RSM and partner) form a good combination for you?
- How do you explain your programme combination in the context of your career goals?
- Provide a possible thesis topic related to the DM² programme
- Also, why should the Selection Committee choose YOU for this programme or DM² partner university, over other qualified candidates?

Individual Study Plan

The individual study plan should provide a more detailed description of your chosen RSM programme, courses that you have selected or taken with the Dual Degree in mind, partner programme courses choices and reasoning for such, and some detail on possible combined thesis topics.
